Dear Samantha,

Children's Plus Inc. has been in business since 1979, and have grown to help in the collection development of some of the largest libraries in the country. Our family owned company prides itself on developing partnerships with a wide range of publishers. These relationships allow us to offer you the best value and widest range of Pre School through High School titles to support your collection.

Discount:

The prices on our website reflect our publishers' Library/School discount price, often as high as high as 25 to 30 %. The Children's Plus Sales reps throughout Texas are please to offer members of CTLS an additional 10% discount off the price shown on our website. We are also offering Free shipping on all orders. Free unattached processing on orders of 25 books or more. And shelf ready processing on orders of 25 books or more for as little as 59 cents!

Purchasing Instructions: Enter promocode 'CTLS' in the special instructions section.

Members can order online with a Purchase Order or credit card. Your local sales rep can help in placing your order and will apply your additional discount before placing your order. Members of CTLS can contact customer service at cs@childrensplusinc.com or call 800-230-1279 to find their local sales representative. Members not wanting to use our website can send their request to their local rep.

We at Children's Plus look forward to serving the members of CTLS, and providing quality and affordable books for the children.

Sincerely

Pam Kern
