

Hello! My name is Carmen and I am your new World Book Educational Sales Consultant. I am so thrilled to be with such an amazing organization. Did you know that World Book is celebrating their 100th year as the most trusted publisher of reference material in the world! We have come along way since 1917 but our dedication to bringing you authoritative, trustworthy, and understandable educational and instructional content has never changed. Our print and digital materials are world class.

I have been in educational sales for 20+ years and I can tell you that World Books print and online resources are absolutely the best I have ever seen! World Book is excited to partner with CTLS to ensure that CTLS members receive special pricing. To kick off our partnership we are offering 10% off all print materials! Just let us know you are a CTLS Member.

We have several consultants in Texas. To find yours simply call 800-975-3250 Press 1 and your call will be connected to your representative. Or contact me directly for any questions, product demos and quotes. I Look forward to serving your library needs.
